100% Oldschool Shoot-em up GAME!!

9V10

P.S. Trading Cards are very expensive!. "Fifteen men on the dead man's chest--
...Yo-Ho-Ho and a bottle of Rum!
Drink and the devil had done for the rest--
...Yo-Ho-Ho and a bottle of Rum!"

Is Captain Morgan a Cyborg? UFO? Is this a joke?

10V10 - for the game final!!!! ;). This is not how a sailboat shoots, silly - you're thinking of another kind of ship!

In all seriousness this game is an age of sail shmup reskin that looks like a school project in scope and quality - get it on a discount for the trading cards maybe.. \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665game

10V10. This is a mobile phone port. Won't play full screen. It's just mindless shooting but fun. It's a good game for me and my four year old. Only recommended if you want mindless entertainment or have kids.. SICKKKKKKKK

This is the kind of game you get in a cereal box. Not even worth the dollar I paid. Web browser game sold on steam.... This is a very hectic, scrolling shooter. I was expecting more freeform navigation, but it's just swarms of different ships with different types of firepower coming from the right as you progress from the left. I should've noticed the "shoot-em-up arcade" part in the description.

You can pick up power-ups that will change your cannons to use fireballs, mines, and so forth. Your ship, as well as the enemies, fires in different directions and at different distances. Since it's continuously scrolling, it's very important to dodge and fire as fast as you can. If you're lucky, you'll pick up repair items and extra lives.

It's quite a straightforward arcade shooter, except it's boats instead of spaceships or airplanes. This isn't my usual type of game, but if you like shooters where you are constantly moving forward, you only can move Up\Down\Left\Right within your current frame, and you just shoot like crazy with unlimited ammo while avoiding getting blitzed by an abnormal number of enemy ships... then this might be for you. It's only $0.99, so why not?
